Description

Small organ with 'Bach' sound character, well sized to fill this medium-sized church.

Case

Three fronts. The central panel is one-piece and covers the entire height of the case. Those on the left and right have a small upper section (about a third of the height of the lower section) for the small pipes. On the sides are the wooden pipes, the mouths of which are arranged perpendicular to those of the front. Simple wood, painted (grey/yellow).

The organ is located on the floor to the right of the choir.

Console

In window.

Classically drawn stops, registers placed vertically on either side of the keyboards.

Right, from bottom to top: Bourdon 8, Flûte cheminée 4, Doublette 2, Cornet III
